

LESSON 3: COMPOSITION

Instructions: Mark the functions in English, anticipating the structure each sentence would have in Greek. Begin by translating subject and verb, then add other elements. The word order of your translation need not replicate English word order .

This is a vocabulary pool intended to jog your memory:

Nouns: διδάσκαλος, υἱός, ἰατρός, οἶκος, φίλος

Adjectives: πονηρός, καλός, χρήσιμος, σοφός

Verbs: παύω, ἀκούω, πείθω, φεύγω

1) Dear teacher, do not teach the bad sons of the doctor!

2) [You (pl) will stop the evil man,] [for ¹ (his) sons are hearing bad stories.]

3) [You (sg) have a fine house,] *but*² [do not have good sons.]

4) [A fine story is useful to men.] [Tell *therefore*³ fine stories.]

5) Who will persuade the wise⁴ to shun (their) good friends?

¹ Use γάρ in the second position of its group of words.

² Use μέν... δέ placing each in the second position of its group of words.

³ Use οὖν in the second position of its group of words.

⁴ Use the plural masculine of the adjective to indicate "wise men."
