FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

America's Top Graphic Designer Comes to Houston The last stop in the search for the greatest graphic designer!

Norcross, GA — Creativity is all around us and C.M.Y.K. – America's Top Graphic Designer has travelled the United States in search of the greatest creative. The last stop on this journey is the University of Houston at the University Hilton Hotel Friday, April 10, 2009. "We've visited Atlanta, Charlotte, Fort Lauderdale, New York, and Chicago, Los Angeles and the Houston, Texas area is our last stop," said Cheryle Reynolds, creator and producer of the new reality competition series.

The top designer will have fresh ideas using traditional and new technology, handling anything from a logo design, to a layout for a high-end magazine full of text, to a podcast, and on to designing a traffic-stopping billboard. The competition will be televised with seven episodes. Guest judges will include creative directors from AIGA, design firms, magazines, newspapers, corporations, colleges, production companies, printing firms, and music/film celebrities, and the general public. The top designer will receive $50,000 in cash/prizes.
